

WORDS

Words. No one is aware of the power THAT WORDS HAVE. Yes...I know that you are frowning in this moment. Most of you are thinking that it is a stupid text, but why don't you stop reading it? Words can control your mind. Words can hurt, make you dream, drive you crazy. Words can inspire and words can destroy. Reading is like breathing, if you don't breathe you will die, if you don't read, your brain will die It's really easy. Before giving up a book full of useful and ambitious words, you should think about it
